

How to Use

File Encryptor

- Files Encryptor application is stand alone application and designed to work in windows platform.
- Using this application you can Encrypt(Non readable form) your files.
- Application Uses latest SHA256 algorithm for encryption.
- Using your password you can safely encrypt and decrypt (Readable form) your files.
- There is no option to reset your password suggested to remember your password.
- You can use different password for different file encryption. But same passwords must be used to decrypt files respectively

Why to use?

- Other commercial third party file encryption application can share your password even your files when you are connected to internet this application is trustworthy and source code is available in my GitHub repository that one can verify

1. Double click on the Icon

2. Minimize if u want

3. Click on Browse files button bellow pop up comes

4. Drop Down arrow select all files → select your files

5. Click on open

Encryption Method

6. Opened file name along with location will be shown for confirmation

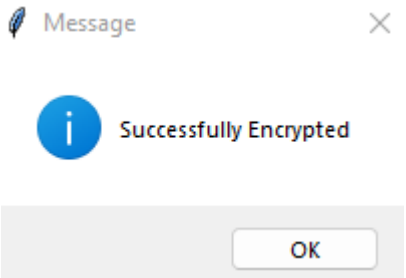

7. Enter your password

8. Click on OK

9. Click on Encrypt

!!! Boom your file is encrypted

10. Close the application after encryption

Decryption Method

